Information That You Voluntarily Provide

We do not collect personal information unless you choose to provide it to us. If you provide us with personal information, for example your address, we use that information to provide better information to you through the Home Energy Saver, as well as to further our research. While we strive to protect your personal information, our Laboratory conducts open fundamental research and cannot guarantee or warrant that your information will never be compromised or disclosed.

How Information is Used

The information you provide on this site is used to provide the service to you, to improve the service, and to conduct and support research by Berkeley Lab researchers and their collaborators.

Information Protection

For site security purposes and to ensure that this service remains available to all users, this University of California computer system employs software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information, or otherwise cause damage. If such monitoring reveals evidence of possible abuse or criminal activity, such evidence may be provided to appropriate law enforcement officials. We may also share this information with other affiliated institutions in order to help secure other systems and networks. Unauthorized attempts to upload or change information on this server are strictly prohibited and may be punishable under California and Federal law.

Sharing of Information

We may share the information you choose to provide to us with our research collaborators and our partners who help to provide this service. We may share the information you provide to us with the Department of Energy and other Federal Agencies. Information you share with us may also be covered by California and Federal laws that provide for mandatory disclosure under certain circumstances, such as subpoenas and records requests.
